Leaves Falling

Lullatone

Put my trust in your love I defended you
despite our past I still breathe for you (for you..) my side is chosen for destiny and this is all I see
Leaves falling down
falling side by side
all I predicted has now begun
Leaves falling down
anywhere I hide
all that was laid down
it seems I drown
You made my beliefs grow little stronger I'm at the end
can't feel it no longer (longer..)
When I dream
I am still awake
and this is all I see
Leaves falling down
falling side by side
all I predicted has now begun
leaves falling down

anywhere I hide
all that was laid down
it seems I drown
Leaves fall down
one by one
Leaves falling down
in tears I drown Leaves fall down
one by one
Leaves falling down
in tears I drown
Leaves falling down
falling side by side
all I predicted has now begun
leaves falling to pieces

all that was laid down
it seems I drown
Leaves falling down
falling side by side (Falling down..)
all I predicted has now begun
leaves falling down
anywhere I hide (anywhere I hide..)
all that was laid down
it seems I drown
