Mine Is the Ocean

Flowing Tears

close your sky and take a stand dear sons of never, Neverland silvertrees and stars will fall tonightvesper shines from 9 to 10 echo and the bunnymen close your eyes and take a walk tonightreturn, return
mine is the ocean
return, make them burn
cry for emotionsaw you out at night again swore to give the best you can hurry up the train will leave tonighteye for eye is what she wrote Jesus Christ in save-up mode hurry up the ship will leave in timeand all the stars we count will hide their smile tonight return, returnmine is the ocean
return, make them burn
cry for emotion return, return
cry for devotionwelcome to see the dark behind wake up to see the hollow minds that we've become welcome to watch your life welcome my sole believer you know the ship has left in time
