Lullaby for a Troubled Man

Gitane Demone

Don't you cry
Somebody wants you
Don't you cry
Somebody needs you
Don't you cry
I'll sing you a lullaby
I'll sing you a lullaby

Why don't they listen?
What, oh what am I missing?
While you are in this world,
I'm on your side
I'm on your side

Try
It seems like never
Try
It seems like forever

I know what to do when you feel so down and blue
I'll be the one who's watching out for you
I'll be the one who's watching out for you
I'm singing a lullaby
For my troubled man
Oh don't you worry, baby
Oh don't you cry
I'll sing you a lullaby
Such a troubled man

Hush, don't you worry, baby
My troubled man
My troubled man
