Addicted To You

Music Junkie

In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
Move me like you do
I'm addicted to you
I try to let go
But I can't say no
It's sad but it's true
I'm addicted to you
Who am I foolin'?
I just wish I knew why
This hold you got on me
Won't let my heart be free
From this confusion
When will it all end?
In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
Move me like you do
I'm addicted to you
I try to let go
But I can't say no
It's sad but it's true
I'm addicted to you
I was determined
I made up my mind
Once I walked out that door
I would not have any more
Of sad delusions
But here I go again
In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
Move me like you do
I'm addicted to you
I try to let go
But I can't say no
It's sad but it's true

I'm addicted to you
Oh, I know that it's wrong
To keep holdin' on

I try to be strong
But my will is undone
When I look into your eyes
I can see past all your lies
I don't want nobody else
In spite of myself
That's sad
Only you, only you
When I'm blue
Sad but true
Never knew
In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
Move me like you do
I'm addicted to you
I try to let go
But I can't say no
It's sad but it's true
I'm addicted to you
In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
Move me like you do
I'm addicted to you
I try to let go
But I can't say no
It's sad but it's true
I'm addicted to you
In spite of myself
Can't nobody else
