

Brand New Song

Reel Big Fish

I've got a brand new girlfriend
She is so lovely lovely
I've got a new ex-girlfriend
She is so fat and ugly Oh not you again it gets worse everytime
And one plus two again won't work I can't divide it
Well I let it go, I don't care, I love you you're not there
Brand new song just for you, I'm not sorry about the things I do I've got a brand new song
It is so happy happy
I've got a brand new attitude
It is so hateful hateful Oh not you again it gets worse everytime
And one plus two again won't work I can't divide it
Well I let it go, I don't care, I love you you're not there
Brand new song just for you, I'm so sorry but that's not true You keep tellin me that it's so easy
(To forget it)
You keep tellin me but I know I'll always regret it
Yeah, yeah, yeah You keep tellin me that it's so easy
(To forget it)
You keep tellin me
But I know I'll always regret it Well I let it go, I don't care I love you and you're not there
A brand new song, done my best I'm so sorry, sorry about this mess
