

Texas Mickey (demo)

Silverstein

Single file you fall in to another empty bottle
Growing larger, trapped inside
And now you cannot swallow all your pride
You fall asleep alone tonight with one day less until you die
(Until you die)One more time
You confirm all our suspicions while you close your eyes and lie
You and I will continue to discover that we're wasting so much timeSilver rings piercing the skin, we know your keeping secrets
Horizontal memories too many tears to regret
Deep inside
You'll fall asleep with them tonight
Penetrating in your mind
(And not just tonight)One more time
You confirm all our suspicions while you close your eyes and lie
You and I will continue to discover that we're wasting so much time
(Wasting so much time)Looking back
All the stupid drama
That painted my world black
Holding hands was a gateway drug
That led to the mess I'm in
But I won't give up
I won't lie down
As you take away my friendsDon't try to change me now
(I know I've lost your heart, I might never get it back)
Don't start to judge me now
(If you could peer into my past You'd see just how much love I've lacked)
There's been a hundred lows (hundred lows)
There's been a million highs (million highs)
And now we're wasting so much time
