

Man Of Action

Matthew Good Band

Between the night and day
Lost in the law of averages
What would you know unless you'd lived a life of it?
They say the kid sold out In love with himself run ragged,
Always looked to be a man of action
'Cause that's what the old man should've been But this world
It wore him out
Eh pa?
This world
It wears you out I disappeared today
I went under if only for a second
And I found where the lights drown
If you lay down
You can disappear all together
You can disappear Got me a whore head
I got me a day star
I lost me control of myself
Baby, I don't want it back
No I don't want to be like that
If this is us in control of ourselves Between the night and day
And so few eyes left open
Your forgiveness ain't a neighborhood that I'm looking to live in maybe This world it wore me out
This world it wears you out I disappeared today
I went under if only for a second
And I found where the lights drown
If you lay down You can disappear all together
You can disappear all together
You can disappear Got me a whore head
I got me a day star
I lost me control of myself
Baby, I don't want it back No I don't want to be like that
If this is us in control of ourselves
