Disintegrate

Eric Margan

can i say i caught ya?
goin on like that, is something i don't want to. can't believe that you would even try to play me.
seein you shotgun in the jeep,
do what you want to, just know i don't want ya.
I'm sayin damn, I'm tryin hard to please ya, tryin to be your man.
while all along not knowing you had other plans.
please tell me you can help me try to understand
cuz i don't understand.you stay out every night
doin anything you like
blame it all on me, blame it all on me
but when there's no more lies,
who was always there for you?
roads so cold, i hope that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
run me dry, hoping that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.now that it's over,
i don't need for you to come back, girl I'm over.
anything you need to say just wouldn't change me
and there ain't no need to talk about it. you shoulda thought about it, said you couldn't be without me. damn I'm tryin hard to please you, tryin to be your man.
while all along not knowing you had other plans. please tell me you can help me try to understand
cuz i don't understand.you stay out every night
doin anything you like
blame it all on me, blame it all on me
but when there was no more lies,
who was always there for you?
roads so cold, i hope that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
run me dry, hoping that i don't disintegrate.
roads so cold, i hope that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.i woulda given you all of me, but you was away.

i tried to blame myself,
when i knew all along it was you.
at the end my hearts still aching.
so i might as well, i might as well disappear, disappearrun me dry, hoping that i don't disintegrate.
roads so cold, i hope that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
run me dry, hoping that i don't disintegrate.
roads so cold, i hope that i don't disintegrate.
can't hold on, so if i do disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't disintegrate.
disintegrate, hope i don't
disintegrate.
