

The Picture (Francois Kevorkian 12" Remix)

Hubert Kah

Don't know how I'm gonna tell you this
Now I'm feeling so confused
And I know you'll be mad
If you could look at my eyes Back at home where I belong
Back at home it seemed so wrong
To be cheated again
My fair lady loves me so well
She'll forgive me When she took a look in my eyes
She saw a picture of you
Maybe you were her in disguise
And I was never untrue Surely you will understand
I must take my life in hand
And forget all of it
You don't need me hangin around
Love is waiting When she took a look in my eyes
She saw a picture of you
Maybe you were her in disguise
And I was never untrue (In my eyes, in my eyes) When she took a look in my eyes
She saw a picture of you
Maybe you were her in disguise
And I was never untrue When she took a look in my eyes Maybe you were her in disguise
