

Ghosts in My Machine

Annie Lennox

Oh come and take this pain away
(oh come and take this pain away)
Oh come and take this pain away
(oh come and take this pain away)
Oh come and set my spirit free
(oh come and set my spirit free)

Yea I've seen too much

I know too much

I hurt too much

I feel too much

I dread too much

I dream too much

I'm caught up by the ghosts in my machine Wooh, yeah I'm bruised and battered by the storm
(I'm bruised and battered by the storm)

Can't find a place to keep me warm
(can't find a place to keep me warm)

My mind is broken and forlorn
(my mind is broken and forlorn) I think too much

I do too much

I fall too much

I fail too much

I cry too much

I die too much

I'm haunted by the ghosts in my machine Wooh, yeah Give me some of that medicine

To make me forget

(i can't find it)

I need something easier (I can't find it)

Cuz I ain't found it yet

(I can't find it)

I ain't found it yet

(I can't find it)

I ain't found it

Oh no no no Wooh Oh woman kind was born of pain
(oh woman kind was born of pain)

My soul keeps hurting just the same
(my soul keeps hurting just the same)

Oh come and take this pain away
(oh come and take this pain away) I give too much
Get used too much

I lose too much
Get bruised too much
I bleed too much
I need too much
I'm sleeping with the ghosts in my machineWoohI still wan't you baby
(no no)
Guess I always do
(no no..)
I stil love to baby
(no no..)
Guess I always do
(no no..)Hoo whoo, hoo whoo, hoo whoo, hoo whoo, whoo, whoo huh
(no no, no no..)
