

Wall Watcher

Sunflower Bean

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)[Verse 1:]

What's it like in your apartment?

When no one has called you

When no one has called

You're waiting for the phone to ring 'cos you're home alone

It's never ringing now

It's never ringing now[Chorus:]

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)[Verse 2:]

Holding on to things that mean so little in the present

Means so little now

Where did the time go? (you)

Gets faster as we go

I feel it all around

I feel it all around[Chorus:]

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you

Watching, I'm watching you (you)Watching, watching, watching, watching you

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)

Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, watching, watching, watching you
Watching, I'm watching you (you)
