Outside

21 Hertz

What I could make out !!

outside my window
I watch her leave

how many times
have I seen the same scene?

she's running
oh, so fast

feeling her spirit retort

it tears me apart
when she leaves [??]
it tears me apart
when she returns

dark side of the pavement wherever she may run

across the street
into the courtroom light

she's trying hard to find something she could call her own

it tears me apart
when she leaves
it tears me apart
when she returns
