

Save Room

John Legend

Say that you'll stay a little
Don't say bye bye tonight
Say you'll be mine
Just a little of bit of love
Is worth a moment of your timeKnocking on your door just a little
So cold outside tonight
Let's get a fire burning
I know, I keep it burning rightIf you stay
Won't you stay?
StaySave room for my love
Save room for a moment to be with me
Save room for my love, save a little
Save a little for me
Won't you save a little?
Save a little for me, ohThis just might hurt a little
Love hurts sometimes when you do it right
Don't be afraid of a little bit of pain
Pleasure is on the other sideLet down your guard just a little
I'll keep you safe in these arms of mine
Hold on to me pretty baby
You will see I can be all you needIf you stay
Won't you stay?
StaySave room for my love
Save room for a moment to be with me
Save room for my love save a little
Save a little for me
Won't you save a little?
Save a little for me, ohOh, come on
Make time to live a little
Don't let this moment slip by tonight
You'll never know what you're missing til you try
I'll keep you satisfiedIf you stay
Won't you stay?
StaySave room for my love
Save room for a moment to be with me
Save room for my love save a little
Save a little for me
Won't you save a little?
Save a little for me, ohSave room for my love

Save room for a moment to be with me
Save room for my love save a little
Save a little for me
Won't you save a little?
Save a little for me, oh
