I Guess You Know

Exilia

I'm coming there my friend, I know the pain you have again
They'll never understand you, they look at you with hateful eyes
It's hard to be courageous, in a world that doesn't care for you
All the reason more to be yourself just as you are
And I guess you know
I guess you know
I guess you know

I don't want to let you
I don't want to let you down
The world may be against you
But Iâ€™ll never let you down

Life is never fair
I know you heard again those words again
They never were your friends
They look at you indifferently

But I guess you know
I guess you know
I guess you know

I don't want to let you
I don't want to let you down
The world may be against you
But I will never let you down

When everything goes wrong
When nothing seems to make sense
When youâ€™re feeling so small
Remember that you're not alone

When everything goes wrong
When nothing means, nothing means nothing

I don't want to let you
I don't want to let you down
The world may be against you
But Iâ€™ll never let you down
