

Hello

Olin & The Moon

Hello goodbye the best days of my life
I wish I could remember half those time
But I'm always liquored up
And everyone talks way too much
And i never listen when I'm drunk

And you say when I'm like that I donâ€™t love you enough
And when I ain't I love you way too much
And maybe a wasnâ€™t all you thought
So go ahead and just give me up

So months come by and I'm getting tired
I wish I could forget you half the time
So I pick a bottle up
And start talking way too much
Cause I'm only happy when I'm drunk

And you say when I'm like that I love you way too much
And when I ain't I donâ€™t love you enough
And I know i wasnâ€™t what you thought
So go ahead and just fuck me up
