

You Are Not Alone

Lifehouse

You hold your breath because you feel
It might be the last one that you can steal, let it out
Reach inside the emptiness
Chase away the shadows and the doubt, Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh You're cold and broken down your
World's cracked and upside down
You feel a million miles away from home (Away from home) Just lose yourself inside my eyes
Release your pain to open skies
I'll catch you when you're ready to let go
You are not alone, you are not alone Fix your eyes on all that's real
It's gonna pass don't be afraid to feel, don't hold it in
And crawl inside this hope again
Open your eyes this is where we begin, Oh You're cold and broken down your
World's cracked and upside down
You feel a million miles away from home (Away from home) Just lose yourself inside my eyes
Release your pain to open skies
I'll catch you when you're ready to let go
You are not alone, you are not alone (Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh) No you are not alone
(Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh) No you are not alone You're tired out of control
A broken heart a beating soul
You carry the weight of the world on your own (On your own) Just lose yourself inside my eyes
Release your pain to open skies
I'll catch you when you're ready to let go
You are not alone, you are not alone (Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh) You are not alone
You are not alone (Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh)
No you are not alone
