Why

UnSun

In the purple glow of the fall
In shivering, chilled arms of trees
Struck with the very last breath
Our love like a dragonfly fleesIn the purple glow of the fall
In shivering, chilled arms of trees
Struck with the very last breath
Our love like a dragonfly fleesWhy, Why, Why, Why?
I keep asking, why?
Obsession, depression
Resurrecting the pastSame fear in the eyes
Same fighting for air
Time turned dusty grey
The evil steps echoWhy?There's no need to look for the culprit
Maybe there is no one to blame
Life is sometimes been unfair
It gives us love and then takes it awayThere's no need to look for the culprit
Maybe there is no one to blame
Life is sometimes been unfair
It gives us love and then takes it awayWhy, Why, Why, Why?
I keep asking, why?
Obsession, depression
Resurrecting the pastSame fear in the eyes
Same fighting for air
Time turned dusty grey
The evil steps echoWhy?Someone slam the door on my heart
Run down the stairs without...Someone slam the door on my heart
Run down the stairs without...Someone slam the door on my heart
Run down the stairs without...Someone slam the door on my heart
Run down the stairs without saying sorry.Why, Why, Why, Why?
I keep asking, why?
Obsession, depression
Resurrecting the pastSame fear in the eyes
Same fighting for air
Time turned dusty grey
The evil steps echoWhy?
