

Dancer in a Daydream

Ace of Base

What an odd situation?
What an odd situation?
What an odd situation? What you got is basic emotions can you feel them
I want to be your lover but you're so shy
What you need is perfect assistance let me guide you
To a land you've never seen before I guess you see that I have another daydream
I guess you see that I have another daydream Come and be a dancer, dance into my daydream
Join me in my daydream, wet and wild
Come and be a dancer, dance into my daydream
Join me in the jungle, wet and wild To help another person will make you feel important
You got my invitation but you're so shy
Come and let your wild side show and be a dancer
A dancer in a daydream we can share I guess you see that I have another daydream
I guess you see that I have another daydream I guess you see that I have another daydream
I guess you see that I have another daydream Help me take control of my full imagination
I'm looking for a man that will watch my situation
I'm thinking about the people waiting down the line
I am in the limelight now's my time I guess you see that I have another daydream
I guess you see that I have another daydream I guess you see, I guess you see
I guess you see that I have another daydream
What you gonna do? I'm a bold explosion
