

Burning From the Inside

Bauhaus

Running without aim
Through the razor weeds
That only reach my knees
And when I'm lying in the gray sleep
I don't know how to walk the boards
I open my eyes and look at the floor
And now I don't see you anymoreThere is no choice

We make a point

To counteract a threatening hand

Close my hold

Let's be near, let's be near the atmosphereRunning without aim

Through the razor weeds

That only reach my knees

And when I'm lying in the gray sleep

I don't know how to walk the boards

I open my eyes and look at the floor

And now I don't see you anymoreAny more

Any more

Any more
