

The More You Live (Mission UK Remix)

A Flock of Seagulls

Don't ever give your heart to a stranger
Don't tell your secrets to a friend
Don't put your heart in mortal danger -

They all desert you in the end.

The more you live
the more you love.

Or so they say: The more you love
the more you throw it away.

They say that nothing lasts forever
And even true love turns to pain.
Don't trust your feelings to a stranger
Don't want to go through this again.

The more you live
the more you love. . . .

The more you live
the more you love. . . .

Don't ever give your heart to a stranger
Don't ever think that you can hold on.

Don't put your heart in mortal danger
You turn around and love has gone.

The more you live
the more you love. . . .

The more you live
the more you love. . . .

The more you live
the more you love. . . .
