The Devil and the Savant

Edguy

When you cross the edge inside reach out for the stranger
As you sign the deal tonight
Icarus's your only guide
See the haggard child of sun
To the tempting fires you run Pass the gate and realize Casting evil eyesDown at your dark lab you threw some tarot cards Reading the fiery truth alchemist you were right the vision's aliveThe devil and the savant Gaze away
Far away
Alchemist you're free inside of your prison
The devil and the savant
Take a light,
Getting sight of a revelation forced:
the chemical wedding day...He appears at your desire Does your bidding - always Lights the candle in the dark See the blood - oh - of us all Think you force him to expose
All above and all below You're never able to unveil what you had to feel...
