Lovesigh

Outloud

Falling star, wished upon in moonbathed sunlight Distant morning lights the way...
Where we are is such a question I can't answer
Not tomorrow or today...More than you'll ever know - How hearts collide in nighttime shadows
More than you ever show - I'm haunting you tonightAs time are changin'
feel the rain that's fallin' on us now
Lives rearrangin'
feel the pain but I don't want to anymore
No use waitin',
turn my head in vain but won't you turn my way
Takin' the time to breathe a lovesighNot long now, for soon the common bonds are broken Whisper softly tales of woe...
Two allow, a meshing of our spirits softly Senseless wonder, say goodbye..More than you'll ever feel - how distance is an early warning
More than you know is real - I'm an angel flying highAs time are changin'
feel the rain that's fallin' on us now
Lives rearrangin'
feel the pain but I don't want to anymore
No use waitin',
turn my head in vain but won't you turn my way
Takin' the time to breathe a lovesigh(Find a way, find a way)Lift me from my knees I pray
(Say you'll stay, say you'll stay)
Try and let your heart remain (Find a way, find a way)
Lift me from my knees I pray
(Say you'll stay, say you'll stay)
No my darling don't turn awayTakin' the time to breathe a Lovesigh...
