

Heart vs. Mind

I Prevail

Life is a jungle, whole heap a rumble, haffe find a way to prevail. So many trials and crosses, and enemies. And the most dangerous it?s me.

Mind VS Heart, wata against stone. Who is gonna overcome and take control? Sometimes I wanna leave, then I wish to stay. Sometimes I am night, sometimes I am day. Mind VS Heart, hot against cold. Who is gonna overcome and take control?
Sometimes I dey smile, and sometimes I cry. Lord give me light ?till the day I die.

I?m fighting a war, and this time it?s against myself. I am hurtin? inside, and me cyaan get no rest.
I smile, I cry, show off, get shy, agree, deny, clear up and confuse again. I meditate, then love, then hate, I?ll change, then it?s too late.

Mind VS Heart, wata against stone, ?
Life is a jungle, whole heap a rumble, ?

Well it?s harder than a labyrinth, this ya road is tougher than a maze. Lots of situations, rules and relations, seem to conduct straight to craze.
Cyaan be progress if the man get weaker, no need for a stage if there is no speaker, these are hard times for he deep taught seeker, nuff a dem swap book for a sneaker.

Mind VS Heart, wata against stone, ?

Ignorance get deeper and deeper, dem see culture like dust, so dem use a big swipper. Media is a double-cut sword, too many talk without saying a word. And so many parents are ruining dem child overprotectin? and getting reviled. Dem nuh want to suffer so dem live in a lie, keep avoiding reality, but time goes by.
