

I Rep That West

Ice Cube

You know what West Coast niggas is gon' tell me?
This is too West Coast Doin' my own thing
And if you got a problem with that
Then the Nina go bang, bang
And I'll be everywhere on the map But I rep that
West
I rep that
West I rep that
West
I rep that
West I rep that
West
I rep that
West I rep that
West
I rep that
West Don't you know that I rep that
Why you got to let that boy in the buildin'?
Don't you know that he about to kill 'em?
Don't you know that he about to hurt y'all feelings?
Can't find Ren, might as well play the villain I'mma get him
Why, 'cause I can't baby sit him
I'mma whip him, treat him like bad ass children
Is it evil, y'all better call them people
How I get down, just ain't legal Money long, sorta like Louis Vuitton
I run this shit right here, call me Marathon
(Boom)
I blow like a cherry bomb
You a small donation, bitch, I'm a telethon West Coast million, what is he really on?
Is it that shit that niggas go silly on?
Hell, no, the pyroclastic flow is evident
(West Side)
And y'all know what I represent Doin' my own thing
And if you got a problem with that
Then the Nina go bang, bang
And I be everywhere on the map But I rep that
West
I rep that
West I rep that

West

I rep that

WestI rep that

West

I rep that

WestI rep that

West

I rep that

West

I rep thatY'all know what it is

Is this too West Coast for you motherfuckers?

So what?
