Time Will Tell

Pro-Pain

up the ante and raise some hell I'm on a quest for vengeanceand time will tellgotta break the silenceand bend the rulesit's a paid vacation on a ship of foolsthey say to let your consciencebut grass ain't always greener always be your guideon the other side bipartisan just suits youand you wear it well your attitude has givenreason to rebeltime will tellface the music, and face the factthat we're comin at you,better watch your back it's an operation to test the willgonna brief the nationin a stone cold killa gross misunderstanding seems to have taken placeto blow up in your face for apathetic reasonthe powertrip has endedso leave what's left behindthis quest is never endingcan't buy that peace of mindtime will tell
