Greetings

Hamza El Din

Greeting, brethrens and sisterens, the P.O.D.
Comin' at ya with The Fundamental Elements
Of this little place we call the south townWe come to ya with authority, we bring wisdom in the power
We bring strength and might, so if you have eyes to see
And you have ears to hear, I'll tell you this
You will understand these truths, so Jah peoples right on Jah people right on, for this is our reality
