

Tulips

Symbiosis

When you said tulips
I knew that you're mine
When I caught you there
    Crying in the night
    Wearing my jacket
    Wearing that smile
I knew that I'd found you Were you unawares?
    Did it catch you out?
    Or did it break you in
    Right from the start?
    It's as pure as fire
    It's as pure as snow
I knew that I'd found you This could be an opportunity
This could be an opportunity If you promise to let it
    If you promise to let it grow
    If you promise to let it
If you promise to let it grow 'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
'Cos you're the one I love 'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
'Cos you're the one I love 'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
    'Cos you're the one I love
