Tomorrow

Tal Bachman

You can read the signs, move in sight where you stand
Where you stand
You can play it cool, casually look at the time
At the timeWe could lie to each other
Say goodbye to each other tomorrow
Tomorrow
We could shine for each other
See day rise with each other tomorrow
Yeah, yeah, yeahI can play you smooth feed you all of my lines
All my lines
I can wind you up, leave you rocked and surprised
And surprisedWe could lie to each other
Say goodbye to each other tomorrow
Tomorrow
We could shine for each other
See day rise with each other tomorrow
Yeah, yeah, yeahI've laid my trap, and I'll watch you fall
I guess you'd call me a natural
I'm far too young to be weighted down
Let's have some fun while we're hanging round...We could lie to each other
Say goodbye to each other tomorrow
Tomorrow
We could shine for each other
See day rise with each other tomorrowWe could lie to each other
Say goodbye to each other tomorrow
Tomorrow
We could shine for each other
See day rise with each other tomorrow
Yeah, yeah, yeah
