Share The Sunshine Young Blood

Emarosa

As little moments fade,
They come forth at night.
Demanding all I think about,
Maybe its how we roll.
Well, I can't get better of stone,
I won't be letting her out.
And I can't keep drowning this down.
Oh, your eyes they glow,
So pretty, they've lost their word,
They king me the love.
And I know I'm dead inside,
I'm reminded every night.
So girl, just know it wont be me.
One girl is destroying this moment,
Open, and tell me everything that I.. Can't help but see,
Contagious lies they never leave.
The girl in your and my eyes,
The girl you can't even see,
Yea, the girl I'm waking, waking up.

Oh, your eyes they glow,
So pretty, they've lost their word,
They king me the love.
And I know I'm dead inside,
I'm reminded every night.
So girl, just know it won't be me.
Didn't you know? Some girls,
It's never been enough to notice,
Enough to notice how I am right.
I'm close but not getting up,
Your close but not getting up,
I'm close but not getting up,
Getting off..
I'm not getting off.
Oh, your eyes they glow,
So pretty, they've lost their word,
They king me the love.
And I know I'm dead inside,
I'm reminded every night.

So girl, just know it won't be me.
