Where Are You

Cara Dillon

Where are you now?
And who's by your side?
Can't hide for a lifetime
Uncover your eyesWake up in the morning
Share the sunlight shining down on us
You and me
Are these sad days always lost on us?Where am I now?
And who's on my side?
I'd wait for a lifetime
For you to come backWake up in the evenin'
Share the moonlight shining down on us
You and me
Are these sad days always lost on us?And turning away
I've been waiting to the home
Yesterday's late until now
[Incomprehensible]Can anyone play me another sad song?
'Cause sad songs remind me of all that we've lost
Can anyone play me another sad song?
'Cause sad songs remind me of all that we've lostWake up in the morning
Share the sunlight shining down on us
You and me
You and meYou and me
You and me
You and
