Loud and Clear

Colton Dixon

I've got something to say
But it might not be what you wanna hear
You're seeking someone to blame
So I'll hardly whisper it in your ear
Truth hurts but it heals too
No comfort is comfortable to youLoud, loud and clear
Can you hear simple truth?
Loud, loud and clear
Can you hear
I need you, I want you, not your fear
Is it loud and clear?Now you're digging a grave
Where you bury all your secrets and lies
Can't mute the sound of your shame
It's the only way you know to survive
Truth hurts but it heals too
No comfort is comfortable to youLoud, loud and clear
Can you hear simple truth?
Loud, loud and clear
Can you hear
I need you, I want you, not your fear
Is it loud and clear?Loud, loud and clear
Can you hear simple truth?
Loud, loud and clear
Can you hear
I need you. I want you, not your fear
Is it loud and clear?Loud, loud and clear
Can you hear
I need you, I want you, not your fear
Is it loud and clear?
