Inside Out

Anthrax

Two is all it needs to be
One catastrophe and everything's inside and out
And you, you make no sense to me
Does your philosophy keep you running down
Keep you running down? yeah?Pull your head from the sandTwo is what you lay to claim
How everything runs the same, rubbing dirt on your wounds
And you, you've got no time for pain, it's one more day too late
Well, I've got a room for the view, I've got a room for the viewI can't tear up your plan
Pull your head from the sand
Take back what you deserve
And I'll give you my, I'll give you my wordCaught up in the movie
But I don't know where I stand
Hold, when you float high above me
'Cause I'll be here when you landTwo is all it needs to be
One catastrophe and everything's inside and out
Everything's insideI'm caught up in the movie
But I don't know where I stand
Hold, when you float high above me
'Cause I'll be here when you land
When you land, when you land, yeah, yeah[Inaudible]
