

Saw You Running

Mary Black

When I lay down to take my rest
Most of the time my mind's on happiness, yes
Some of the time but not for long
I get a feeling of something that's yet to come
I get a picture telling me what's undone When I find out that you don't love me, honey
When I find out that you're going away
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay Well, I got an eye upon the road
And I've got a hand to hold my heavy load, yes
I got a man and I've got a gun
One is for fighting, the other one's just for fun
One is for fighting, oh, the other one's just for fun When I find out that you don't love me, honey
When I find out that you're going away
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay Oh, when I lay down to take my rest
You know most of the time my mind's on happiness, yes
Some of the time but not for long
I get a feeling of something that's yet to come
I get a picture telling me what's undone When I find out that you don't love me, honey
When I find out that you're going away
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay Oh, when I find out that you don't love me, honey
When I find out that you're going away
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running from where I lay
There'll be no surprise 'cause I saw you running
I saw you running, I saw you running from where I lay
