Brand New

When I disappear, do you fear for my sister and talk

When I disappear, it is clear I am up to no good

I am drearily blunt, letting this time, waiting for too long

So the last thing you realize youll miss what you've already gotSo touch me or don't, just let me know Where you've beenPlease draw me a line with a hook and some raw bleeding bait

Well, I am uncaught and still swimming alone in the lake Shimmering under a moon made in anger and angst

Shimmering like a penny out of reach in the subway grateTouch me or don't, just let me know

Where you've been

We could leave it alone, I'm sure there's someone who knows Where you've beenYou never worked well with our group

Not with the faults we found

So we fixed you with cement galoshes

And no one can save you nowUnless you have friends among fish

There'll still be no air to breathe

You could drink up the entire ocean

I'll still find someone to be everything we know that you'll never beSo touch me or don't, just let me know Where you've been

Or we could leave it alone, I'm sure there's someone who knows Where you've been
