

Toothless Dream

Dog Fashion Disco

Hirudinoids
emotionless and feeding threatened by anemia i am helpless and bleeding suspended in air
caught in another toothless dream when pagans sleep and atheists slumber evangelists and bishops come to comfort one another silent in prayer
caught in another toothless dream
possession by twilight haunts me continuously exercised upon my jaw there in the garden the serpent sings a lullaby that summons the undead from the ground as vampires and zombies begin cicling around me in the year of our lord continuum
exorcised upon my gums
time continuum
