

Light Of Love

Music Go Music

There was a time, my love
My heart had grown cold
My arms were reaching out
 For someone to hold
I was all mired in gloom
 And I was alone
Then you took a hold of me
 And made me your own

You pulled me up where I belong
Though at first it seemed so wrong
To be scaling love's great heights
 Basking freely in its light

I'd forgotten the things I knew
 Inside to be true
Trials were everywhere
 And pleasures were few
 I drifted alone
 In the ocean of life
But then you pulled me, dear
 From the waters of strife

You dragged me out from the abyss
 With a whisper, with a kiss
 Out into the light of love
That shone down on us from above

Speak to me, darling in hushed tones
 Tell me your heart's true desire
 Look far back into my eyes
 Now we are in this together

There was dearth in me
 There was a lack
I could not see my heart
 But feared it was black

You pulled me up where I belong
Though at first it seemed so wrong

To be scaling love's great heights
Basking freely in its light

You dragged me out from the abyss
With a whisper, with a kiss
Out into the light of love
That shone down on us from above

Speak to me, darling in hushed tones
Tell me your heart's true desire
Look far back into my eyes
Now we are in this together

You pulled me up where I belong
Though at first it seemed so wrong
To be scaling love's great heights
Basking freely in its light

You dragged me out from the abyss
With a whisper, with a kiss
Out into the light of love
That shone down on us from above
