Busman's Holiday

welcome one and all I'm you see you've come for all the time your here i feel less lonely sometimes i wonder though, the way you treat me so i will not stand to be taken for granted i miss the days you hug my leg but now you've grow and turn awayi play this song you've heard so long you just can't hear it the tune rolls on theres something wrong i think you fear it but all the things i say and do never seemed so real to you oh all the things i say and do never seem so real to youby noon the shadow heal september summers real the fallen berries stain grey sidewalks and all my memories seem to be rolling into an endless tide forever growing
for now you've grow its hard to sayI play this song you;ve heard so long you just can't hear it
and all the things i say and do never seem so real to you oh all the things i say and do never seem so real to you
