

Hear Me Out

Girls Aloud

I was drowning in the rain
Gettin' lost beneath the downpour
Tried to shield a dyin' flame, oh
Nearly lost what I had come for But somewhere in my heart
A little gold was workin' its way out
And made a star
To guide me on my way, yeah Somewhere deep inside
I remembered what it's all about
I took my time
But now I think, I'll have my say, now Hear me out
I've done my runnin' believe me
Without a doubt
I'll no longer take the blame Hear me out
My heart is broken and bleedin'
But it's beatin'
No other man I love is gonna leave me in the rain, yeah I know
(I was lost but now I'm found)
As the rain pours down the window
(And I've turned my life around)
I'm no longer here in limbo
No more drama, smeared mascara on my pillow
(When my life came tumbling down) Now I can see which way I'm goin'
Follow my heart that's what they say
Never too small can't stop me growin'
Takin' the world on day by day Follow the way the wind is blowin'
Free to explore and find my way
I'll take all the stuff that life is throwin'
This is the chance to have my say, yeah Hear me out
I've done my runnin' believe me
Without a doubt
I'll no longer take the blame Hear me out
My heart is broken and bleedin'
But it's beatin'
No other man I love is gonna leave me in the rain Hear me out,
I've done my runnin' believe me
Without a doubt
I'll no longer take the blame Hear me out
My heart is broken and bleedin'
But it's beatin'

No other man I love is gonna leave me in the rain I know
(I was lost but now I'm found)
As the rain pours down the window
(And I've turned my life around)
I'm no longer here in limbo
No more drama, smeared mascara on my pillow
I know
