Call On Me

Dakota Moon

There's gonna be days like this
When it seems like you're never gonna get your wish
There's gonna be nights
When you can't sleep, can't sleep at all, yeahThere's gonna be people trying to bring you down
When you try to ease the pressure but you don't know how
There's gonna be times
When you think the sky is gonna fall, fallJust when you feel like you're out on your own
Just look over your shoulder, you're not aloneWhen you're in need just call on me
I'll be your strength anytime you're weak
You'll be alright, just wait and see
I'll be your shelter, just call on me, yeahThere's gonna be rain when you least expect
There's gonna be times when you wonder what's gonna happen next
There's gonna be problem after problem that you can't solve
Can't solve at all, yeahJust when you feel like you can never win
Well, don't give up and I won't give in, yeahWhen you're in need just call on me
I'll be your strength anytime you're weak
You'll be alright, just wait and see
I'll be your shelter, just call on meJust when you feel like you're out on your own
Just look over your shoulder, honey, you're not aloneWhen you're in need just call on me
I'll be your strength anytime you're weak
You'll be alright, just wait and see
I'll be your shelter, just callCall on me when you're in need
Call on me whenever you're weak
Call on me, baby you'll see
Call on me, call on meCall on me when you're in need
Call on me whenever you're weak
Call on me, baby you'll see
Call on me, call on meCall on me when you're in need
Call on me whenever you're weak
Call on me, baby you'll see
Call on me
