

Ex Girlfriend

Brielle Lesley

I should have listened to your ex-girlfriend

She told me girl please don't trust him

You made me believe that you'd be a better man

Open up my heart and give this love thing another chance

I believed everything this nigga said, shit I put my whole heart into his hands

I was just the moment, not in the future plans

I should've listened to your ex girlfriend

I held onto your word, gotta let it burn

You build me up to bring me down, Shit I don't deserve

Don't know what to do, I quit them all for you

I put up for your crew and it's fucked your cuz she said

He's a liar, he's a cheater, good provider but your not the only one

Yea they're endless but you're the realest

In my eyes but she was right

I should've listened to your ex girlfriend, Ohhhh, Yea

I should've listened to your ex girlfriend
