

Just Cause You're Gone

Flipsyde

It seems like yesterday when they picked up the phone they let you know that your baby boy ain't come never be home cryin' alone and visited in scene in my mind, us three better teamed as we walk through the night, Rides and roads will never look the same again,
Used to be peaceful until the night they took my friend.
I aint have a scratch on me but my hart was crippled.
So I'm bleed I it to the Song jelly gates are missin'.

Just cause...[Chorus]

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't it mean you have to go. Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't it mean you have to go. Time is more precious then diamonds and cash, Once you spent it its gone forever and you cant make it last,
Wasted in runnin around in circles chasing a cake, Never realizing your bullshitting before its too late. And so i sit for a second and watch the clouds roll by,
Get to split for a second and analyze my life.

Same questions same answers,

same mirror ssame man,
time is tickin' that's why keep on day that they livin', just cause...[Chorus]

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go. Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go. All alone i listen,

To the silent whisper,
Hid the leaving liquor
Now im feeling sicker and my heart is strong ,
But im feeling weak,

So i sing a song

Cause your out of reach

They say the scene is believing but i cant fucking see it

Im losing all of my partners for no apparent reason.
Gotta keep moving, Im knowing that i cant stop achieving.
Either i win on this planet or i aint fucking leaving.[Chorus]

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to goJust cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to goJust cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to goJust cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go.

Just cause you're gone,
it doesn't mean you have to go
