She Lays Down

The 1975

[Verse 1]
And she lays down on her bedroom floor
The chemicals that make her laugh
Don't seem to be working anymore
She tries her best, but it hurts her chest
And even though her sun is gone
She lights like a child nevertheless[Verse 2]
My hair is brown, she's scared to touch
And she just wants to feel something
And I don't think that's asking for too much
And when I go to sleep it's when she begins to weep[Chorus]
She's appalled by not loving me at all
She wears a frown and dressing gown
When she lays down[Verse 3]
Well we got a plane, going to see my dad again
She prayed that we fell from the sky
Simply to immediate the pain
Over the water, hmm
Over terrain
The engines all go bust, we turned to dust
No reason to complain, yeah
And in the end, she chose cocaine
But it couldn't fix her brain[Chorus]
She's appalled oh she doesn't loving me at all
She wears a frown and dressing gown
When she lays down[Matty Healy]
That was it
