

15 Minutes Of Shame

Kristy Lee Cook

Yeah, this song is about you
I'm giving you more than fair warnin' right now on your radio
Everybody's gonna hear all the things that you did
That you don't want the world to know I'm spillin' the beans, I'm shouttin' it out
Yeah, you're gonna be sorry now Every single lie you told, I'm tellin'
Every promise that you broke, I'm rattin' you out
Every girl in the world's gonna know your name
And I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of shame Hey, you're lookin' nervous
Now that your double talkin' has caught back up with you
Stick to your alibi
Don't try to deny it when I reveal the truth Sure you're pretty good at workin' a line
But it's all just a matter of time Every single lie you told, I'm tellin'
Every promise that you broke, I'm rattin' you out
Every girl in the world's gonna know your name
And I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of Shame, shame, shame on you
Look who's lookin' like a fool now
Blame, blame, blame yourself
Won't be foolin' no one else anymore Every single lie you told, I'm tellin'
Every promise that you broke, I'm rattin' you out
Every girl in the world's gonna know your name, Jason
And I hope you enjoy your 15 minutes of shame
Your 15 minutes of shame, shame, shame
Your 15 minutes of shame
