The Body Electric (Live On Clockwork Angels Tour)

Rush

One humanoid escapee
One android on the run
Seeking freedom beneath the lonely desert sunTrying to change its program
Trying to change the mode, crack the code
Images conflicting into data overloadOne zero zero one zero zero one
SOS
One zero zero one zero zero one
In distress
One zero zero one zero zeroMemory banks unloading
Bytes break into bits
Unit One's in trouble and it's scared out of its witsGuidance systems break down
A struggle to exist
To resist
A pulse of dying power in a clenching plastic fistOne zero zero one zero zero one
One zero zero one zero zero one
In distress
One zero zero one zero zeroIt replays each of the days
A hundred years of routines
Bows its head and prays
To the mother of all machines
