My Shadow

The Haunted

Kill me I'm useless
Cauterize life itself
Abuse and outshine one another
Last one down lives for everI swallow the fear
It's darkness and chemical time
These walls have eyes
A love like crimeSeal the absence of my shadow
All my dreams condoning arrows
Killing my defiance
And unwind the broken wires in meShe said my obsessions would lead me to hell
That the flesh is weak now just watch how
Unheard by God
Lysergic propulsion, teen nymphomaniaNeural deficiencies and stray dog values abandon me
Blasting trough the normative surrender is useless
It won't take the pressure of inherit the lie
So tell me, do you spit or swallow?A dying light fading
Why?Seal the absence of my shadow
All my dreams condoning arrows
Killing my defiance
And unwind the broken wires in meDrained I lay
Branded for life
My shadow fades
