

This Is Not Real Love

George Michael

George:

Don't kiss me, darling
I want you to hear the things I say
I loved you in my way
But you know I'm gonna leave you

Mutya:

The clock was always ticking
And your heart,
Yes I know your heart is always on the run

George:

I hate what I've become
But I'm still gonna leave you
And I don't think you should stay for the night

Mutya:

Baby you know that my flesh is weak
You know I simply

Both:

I cannot sleep without you
My heart has simply nowhere to go

Mutya:

Nothing to hold
Those tears you're crying

George:

Time and time again you take me back in baby

Mutya:

You don't have to make it plain

Both:

This is not real love

Mutya:

Look at us dancing baby
Let's dance and show them all
(Dance and show them all)

How close we are
The lies have worked so far
So we go on deceiving

George:

But darling don't you know the time

Baby, look at yourself, holding back the tide

Like you've got something else up your sleeve

That's why I've got to leave

Both:

And I don't think you should stay here tonight

(Baby don't you know that my flesh is weak, you know)

I simply I cannot sleep without you

But someday I'll have nothing to show

(Nothing to show)

(Nothing to show)

I've nothing to hold

George:

Oh, baby, crying

All those simple things that won't come again

Oh do I have to make it plain

This is not real love

And I said this is not real love

Mutya:

Real love

Baby it don't glisten and shine the way it used to

George:

This is not real love (real love)

Baby think of all the promises I made on the day that I seduced you

Baby don't wait for me like some angel of tragedy

I have to set you free

Darling you should be long gone, oh long gone by now

You should be with someone, someone

Mutya:

Glisten and shine

You promised me

George:

You've gotta face it woman, you ain't ever gonna change me

Mutya:

Where will I go, what do I know

About life without you

You promised me you'd never leave me, no

This is not real love
