Ten Foot Pole

Waiting for the answers
All solutions to my problems
I guess I need your help on the way
Am I searchingKeep track of what's going on Learing from my failure I'm not afraid to fall
Don't want to dig my hole and deeper
Still think I need your helpFear the pilot who steers the ship
Don't get off the train
Are you afraid
I'm notNo tickets to my paradise
It's all inside
Don't be afraid to explore your mind
And go crazyWill you open be open armed
Save me from this wreck I'm not afraid to die
Keep digging down I'm over my head
What are youI won't flu on the ship
Eating you off a piece of paper
Then freaked off my tripAnd now it's later on
And I won't end this way
My high is so much stronger
All the colors in my holeAm I alive?I've just lost a portion of my mind
But I have opened a new door
I won't forget the time that you showed me
