

God's Love To Deliver

Jim James

I have a dream,
oh Dr. king will I know what you mean
We were all equal in your eyes and ears God speaking through you direct connection We carry on, we carry on then becomes now, our hearts carry on Living the words and your message lives on Love has no equal
Direct connection, straight to the source Fate had to deliver a feeling so pure Negating all evil
we have found the lord
And our hearts reborn I was the lion
You were the eagle,
your claws in my back
You were so eager to get through the night
But our love is off limit
No real connection
Constantly my head on the phone
Running in circles to find the real love
The love that find me
When I least expect it
You are the man
And I lay beside you in peace and in life
Our love has no equal
In your eyes and mine
Gods love to deliver Gods love to deliver
