Rich Robinson

We all live by action, direction.
Without ever asking why should we?

We seek out answers
to these questions.
What are we doing
to make things right?

Long run, right now.
Can we come out?
And stand on our own
and take the blame?

Right or wrong.
Judgement. Compassion.
When will we realize
it all turns grey?
