Empathy

Sneaker Pimps

Her innocence is above me
Today is dead, she's around my head
Between my history between my headphones
This is her home forever her homeBut I can't be her brother
To empower her to become her
Trawl through this forgiveness
My memory's so empathy lowThis attitude beneath her
It's evident it denies us
Proves herself to be closer
But not me forever not meThis sickness avoids all cure
Imperfection my downfall
Learn myself through symptoms
My memory's so empathy low
